

Post Your News

Use the "Post Your News" section at www.newszap.com
to share your people and community news.

Page 40

Community

Friday, July 23, 2010

Submitted photo

IAAP marks 30th anniversary

First State Chapter, International Association of Administrative Professionals, celebrated its 30th anniversary on July 10 at the Delaware Agricultural Museum and Village in Dover. The chapter was officially chartered on July 28, 1979, with 17 members at the former Dover Inn. Today, First State Chapter boasts 30 members including two associate members. First State Chapter is part of the Delaware-Maryland-

District of Columbia Division that is comprised of 17 chapters. Among those in attendance were four charter members, from left, Roylene Marvel, Pat Palmisano, Jo Rolison and Dot Willis. The speaker for the event was Sandy Ratke, immediate past president of the DE-MD-DC Division. Attendees enjoyed scrapbooks, memorabilia, trivia, plenty of reminiscing and entertainment by the First State Harmonettes.